Violence pre-planned: Mehta

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
GANDHINAGAR, OCTOBER 31
 FORMER Gujarat Chief Minister and senior BJP leader Suresh Mehta has alleged that the Godhra train burning incident and communal violence that ensued across the State was "pre-planned and pre-planned", if one believes in what BJP MLA Hareesh Bhatt told a Tehelka reporter during the sting operation which was telecast by Aaj Tak.

Mehta told mediapersons here on Tuesday that Bhatt's statement "we got many country-made pistols from MP, Bihar and UP and also ordered two truckloads of swords from Punjab" amply proved that the Godhra train carnage and its violent aftermath was "pre-planned", and Chief Minister Narendra Modi had had a pre-knowledge of it.

The former CM said it would have taken at least three to four days for the consignments of weapons to reach Gujarat from far-flung states like Punjab, Bihar and UP, which the Godhra MLA said had been distributed among rioters across the State.

EMBERLING Sarda
 on his birth anniversary, Minister Keshubhai rectly, took a dig at his arch rival Narendra Modi saying that "missing". He appealed the n via Patel to come forward an Speaking at the foundation of Sardar Patel Bhavan, a L only hall, Keshubhai said: "principles of democracy. Today? Efforts are on to terrorised society, the next ge weak. It is time you should bring in the change."

RAJKOT: A WOMAN committed suicide along with her two children in Jamwadi village of Gondal taluka in Rajkot on Tuesday. According to preliminary investigation, domestic disharmony could be the reason behind the extreme step. Registering a complaint, Gondal police said Chandrika Dadhadnia (30) jumped into a village well with her 8-year-old son and year-and-half-old daughter after tying the children to her with a dupatta. The bodies were fished out in the afternoon. She had been married to Ramesh Dadhadnia for the past 10 years and reportedly had frequent quarrels with mother-in-law, said police.
