

Rajoo Engineers upgrades the Yantralaya plant with advanced machinery →

By Staff Report November 19, 2024 11:19 am IST

 Listen this article

Rajoo Engineers Limited has invested ₹.300 million in its Yantralaya plant, upgrading it with advanced 5-axis vertical multitasking machinery from Japan.

Rajoo Engineers Limited, a leader in the plastic extrusion machinery-manufacturing sector, has made a strategic leap with a ₹. 300 million investment in its Yantralaya, now upgraded with advanced 5-axis vertical multitasking machinery from Japan. This enhancement boosts Rajoo's production capacity by 40% while elevating precision, efficiency, and Total Quality Management (TQM) standards. This expansion enables Utsav Doshi, Jt. Managing Director of Rajoo Engineers Ltd., said, “The investment in Yantralaya and the integration of advanced machinery reflect our ongoing commitment to bringing world-class manufacturing standards to India. This expansion is not only about increased production; it is about harnessing technology to enhance precision, reduce human intervention, and ultimately create value for our customers. Yantralaya stands as a testament to our vision of pushing boundaries in manufacturing excellence.”

Tags: 5-axis vertical multitasking machinery Japan Rajoo Engineers Yantralaya plant

Related Posts: